

"What am I?" Riddle Poem

What Am I?

I am round and juicy,
red and sweet,
I grow on a vine,
in the summer heat.
I'm a popular fruit
in so many ways;
Some think I'm a vegetable but I'm not what they say!
You can use me for cooking
or eat me alone;
I go great with a burger
but I don't have any bones.
Can you guess what I am?
Did you get the clues?
If you guessed a tomato,
then you didn't lose!
