

Directions:

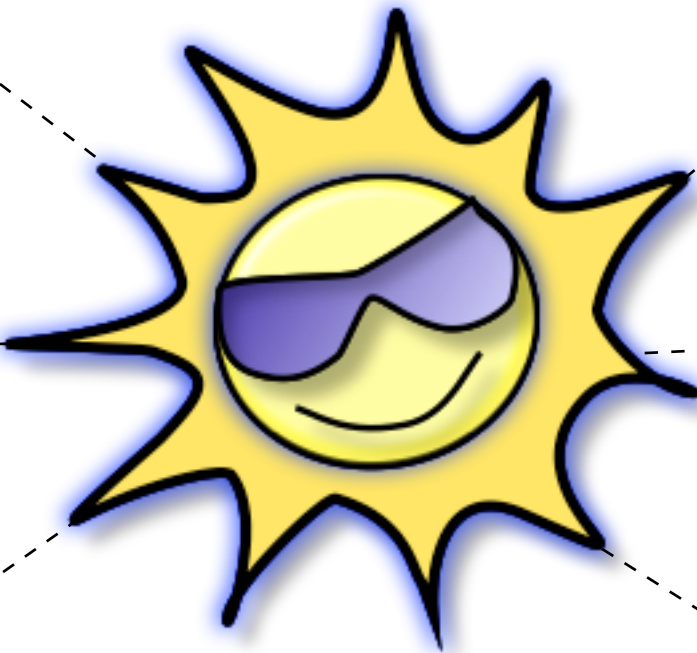

Print and cut out cards for each of your students to encourage summer reading. List six books on each card that are appropriate to their interest and reading levels. When students have read the books, either individually or with their families, they can fill in the circles. Ask them to bring back the filled cards at the end of summer for a small treat such as a pencil or a book-mark. Encourage your whole school to participate!

My Summer Reading Card

Name: _____

My Summer Reading Card

Name: _____