

Journaling Cards for Literature Responses

What would you change this book?

Make a timeline of the events in this story.

Discuss the relationships between the characters.

Were there any scenes that you felt were unnecessary in the book?

What would happen if the story was set in a completely different setting. Would it work?

What kind of gift would be suitable for the main character, and why?

What would be happening with the characters and the story if it picked up 20 years from the ending?

What kind of advice would you like to give the main character?