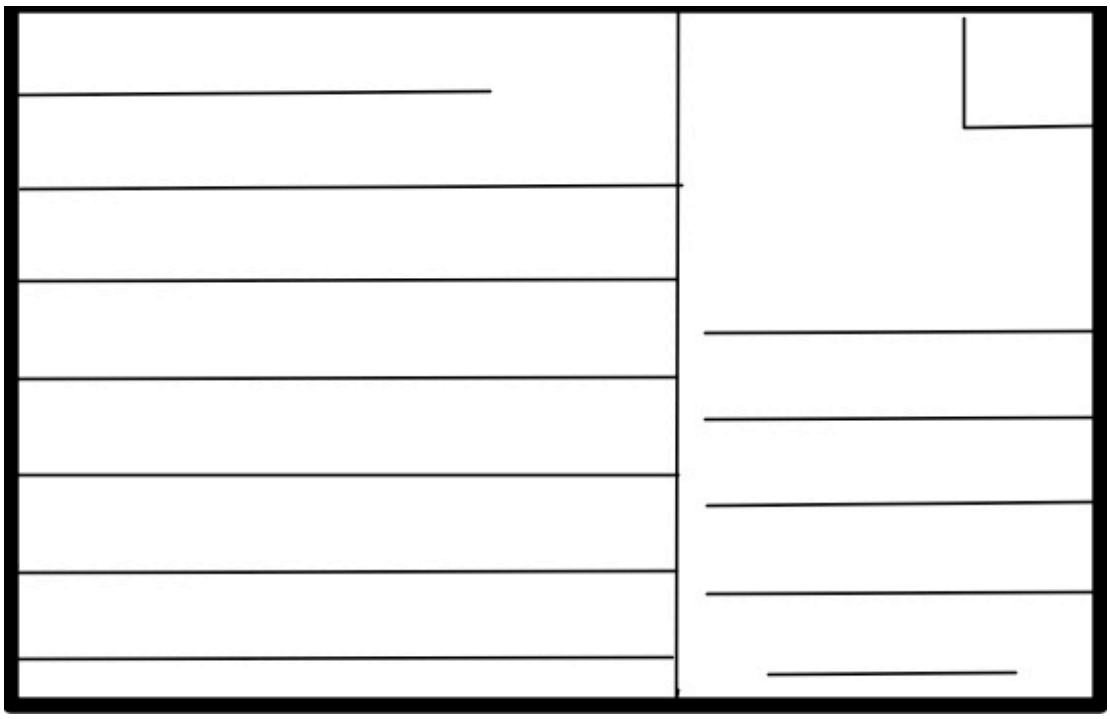
50 STATES POSTCARDS

Use these postcards for one of the projects on the 50 States Web Treks, where students can create their own postcards filled with interesting trivia about their assigned states. Print these postcards out onto white cardstock; students can create their own illustrations on the front, cut photos from magazines, or print them out from the websites listed in the 50 States Web Treks. Make sure they also design a stamp for their assigned state!



© 2007 Realmworks Communications. http://www.everydayteaching.com